

CALIFORNIA STATE ASSEMBLY JOB LISTINGS

Office: Assemblymember Alvarez

Classification: Legislative Director

Posted: August 15, 2024 (Updated September 19, 2024)

Assemblymember Alvarez is seeking to fill a full-time job opening for a Legislative Director based in his Capitol Office. The Legislative Director's primary responsibilities will be the development and movement of the Assemblymember's legislative agenda in collaboration with the Chief of Staff. Key duties will include, but are not limited to, researching and developing legislative proposals, providing guidance and direction to other staff, seeking out and communicating with key stakeholders, analyzing bills, providing policy recommendations, monitoring committee hearings and floor proceedings, drafting talking points, and preparing the Assemblymember for meetings, briefings and committee and Assembly floor activity.

Qualified candidates will be proactive self-starters who are highly organized, detail-oriented, creative, possess strong writing and analytical skills, employ good judgment, work well on deadline and under pressure, and able to successfully manage multiple and competing tasks and projects. Minimum of 3-5 years of legislative experience, excellent oral and written communication skills, and a strong background in policy and legislative process required.

Candidates must have the ability to perform high administrative and policy-influencing functions and effectively work well in a fast-paced, team-oriented environment. The Legislative Director will also be expected to stay up-to-date on current events, especially those that involve the State of California and Assembly District 80.

The salary range for this classification is $5,691 - $9,559 monthly, with the exact compensation commensurate with experience.

Contact: Interested applicants should e-mail a single PDF document containing your resume, cover letter, and two writing samples that showcase your communication skills and experience relevant to the role to Travis.Knowles@asm.ca.gov.
